Roman Podrázský (1943 - 2001)

Exhibition in Pribyslav 5-9-2013

On September 5, 2013 the exhibition will be opened in Pribyslav of Roman Podrázský, a socially engaged artist who would have turned 70 this year.

Roman Podrázský wanted to go to art school, but he was not accepted. Therefore, he went to work as a municipal worker. In 1961, he was admitted to the Prague School of Applied Arts, specializing in murals in architecture. He then studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Prague. After graduating in 1970, he had problems with the former regime in part because of his work "a shooter and the Red Star" and was therefore not admitted to the Union of Artists. He had great difficulty in finding enough work.

Continuation: "Roman Podrázský"

Most of his sculptures are made of sandstone and are exhibited at and around Přebyslav.

The Stations of the Cross in Doudlevice - Pilsen

A famous work of his is the Stations of the Cross in the Meditation Garden in Pilsen, Doudlevice, better known as the "Monument to the Victims of Evil". This unique work of Hořice sandstone is different from the classic stations of the cross. While traditional it has fourteen stations, you will find here twelve, but no scene is missing.

In Přebyslav there are the charcoal drawings to see, exhibited in Brielle in November 1989 in the Pilgrimage Church. These drawings were made by him following the terrible experiences of his friend in Russian camps. Roman Podrázský also devoted himself to painting.
